

Healthcare Rights

The NHS values gives you rights as a patient, this includes:

Getting health services

Good quality of service

Being treated by trained and experienced staff

Deciding about treatment and medication

Being treated with kindness and respect

Being listened to when things go wrong

Keeping personal information safe