

What is a pharmacy?

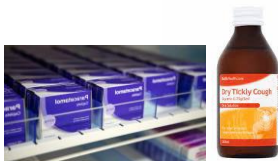

A pharmacist is an expert in medicines who can help with minor health conditions

A pharmacy can give you advice to get help from other places

A pharmacist can answer questions about medication that has been prescribed

And medication that can be bought over the counter

Pharmacies usually have private rooms to talk in

Pharmacists can help you take medication safely